SECTION 7 TOUR

Swedish rock band tAKiDA back on tour in January 2027

16 shows in Germany, Austria and Switzerland

They top the radio airplay charts, perform at ever-larger venues and bring their unmistakable sound to an ever-growing fanbase – the Swedish multi-platinum band tAKiDA are currently at the height of their success. As part of the ‘Section 7 Tour’, tAKiDA are coming to Germany, Austria and Switzerland for twelve shows in January 2027!

tAKiDA already have seven platinum singles (including one quadruple platinum), three platinum albums and five number-one albums to their name. Their tours are getting longer with every outing and the venues ever bigger. Having long since reached arena status in their home country, the rest of Europe is slowly following suit, with major festivals across Europe booking tAKiDA for their main stages – such as Wacken Open Air.

Their latest album, “The Agony Flame”, reached number 1 in the German rock radio airplay charts thanks to the hit “The Loneliest Hour”. Their most recent single, “The Game”, also entered the charts at number 2 and made it into the Top 100 of the mainstream radio charts.

The band are currently in the studio, and new material from their upcoming album will be released in the course of this year.

tAKiDA are:

Robert Pettersson – vocals

Tomas Wallin – backing vocals, guitars

Mattias Larsson – guitars

Chris Rehn – bass, keyboards, guitars, programming and arrangements

Kristoffer Söderström – drums
